

At Christmas, God is given to us as an infant - small, fragile and innocent - the meek and joyful child Jesus is an expression of the limitless love of God. This Child in a manger, teaches us what is truly essential in our lives - self emptying. He chose to be born in poor and humble surroundings, to teach us that selfless love is more valuable than prestige, compassion is more desirable than pride and mercy is better than power.

May you be touched by the grace of the season, learn from Jesus who is meek and humble and enjoy a blessed and humble Christmas.

The Incarnation presents to us a humble God who retains nothing for himself.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!
